The Lucille Hurt Robuck ‘Commitment to Corrections’ Award

“The Lucille Hurt Robuck Commitment to Corrections Award” is presented annually to an individual who has demonstrated an outstanding contribution to the field of Corrections during the past year.

Robuck passed away in March 2005 after devoting her entire career to the field of criminal justice. She was an attorney and served as chairman of the Kentucky parole board under five Kentucky governors. Robuck was also a judge for the juvenile court systems in Jefferson County and a retired professor of criminal justice at Eastern Kentucky University where she mentored many Corrections professionals working in Kentucky today. She was a member of the Kentucky Bar Association, and the American Academy of Criminal Justice. She earned her masters of social work and doctorate of jurist prudence from the University of Louisville.

Previous recipients of the prestigious award include:

2007 – Jan M. Kempf

*Executive Vice-President/Chief Operating Officer
Dismas Charities, Inc*

2006 – Dr. Lee T. Todd

University of Kentucky President

2005 – Denise Bentley

Former liaison to the Louisville Metro/Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government councils under the Governor's Office for Local Development

*The 2008 Lucille Hurt Robuck
'Commitment to Corrections' Award*
